23. Types of mobility *

In a one-to-one exchange, two pupils somewhat swap places at schools and families. In a one-way mobility, a pupil simply visits a school/family. Choose which of the following type of mobility best describes the mobility plans of the applying pupil.

Order of Priority Please be aware that, for organizational reasons, schools give priority to 1. One-to-one exchange mobility A. After that, the order of priority is as follows: 2.One-to-one mobility 3.One-to-one mobility 4.One-way mobility 5.One-way mobility 6.One-way mobility C

- ☐ 1. One-to-one exchange mobility A: You have already found a host family and your family will host the child of your host family at the same time. In this case, please do not contact the Mobility coordinator of the host school. Coordinators of both schools will work together in order to match students as much as possible.
- ☐ 2. One-to-one exchange mobility B: You have already found a host family and your family is willing to host a pupil at the same time.
- ☐ 3. One-to-one exchange mobility C: You still need to find a host family and your family is willing to host a pupil at the same time.
- ☐ 4. One-way mobility A: You have already found a host family but your family cannot host a pupil.
- ☐ 5. One-way mobility B: You still need to find a host family and your family cannot host a pupil at the same time but your family commits to host a pupil next school year.
- ☐ 6. One-way mobility C: You still need to find a host family but your family cannot host a pupil at all.
